Hi,

Please see attached pictures regarding this location on Tuesday.

The RV was found not leaking and trash / debris were removed, including bulky items.

Vehicle could be referred for towing at this time.

And the 2nd visit from yesterday below.

Re: Abandoned Encampment

On 12900 Wentworth St, 1 HE/RV's were found. However due to quarantine of Coronavirus during this period, only spot cleaning was performed and tents were allowed to remain up. ECIs processed voluntary trashes, surrendered bulky items and dispose of them as accordingly. Two (2) LAPD officers arrived to investigate the leak that is caused by the 1 HE/RV's and wanted to see if the suspect was still in the HE/RV. LAHSA knocked but no one was deemed inside and since suspect was not there, there was no voluntary trashes given and the HE/RV was mostly in compliance as no leaks were determined (see pic below).

(1) 12900 Wentworth St

Items found with evidence of wet, dirty, contaminated, infectious, odorous/foul-smelling, broken, disrepair/damaged, vermin infested or declared voluntary trash:

Location 1: 12900 Wentworth St: 1 HE/RV's, no voluntary trashes

Good morning Sarah,

I need your help in getting an abandoned encampment and RV cleared at the following address.

12900 Block of Wentworth Street at Sharp Avenue. The RV is leaking and a tent is attached to the RV. Please see the photo below.
